

Red Fascism Find Religion "Opium" Of The People

Many times we have quoted Government officials of Russia as to their plans to destroy entirely all religion. Often we have given positive evidence that Communism is systematically stamping out religion of all denominations in the thirteen countries it now dominates in Europe.

Here below we give you excerpts from a circular distributed by the Communist Party in Denver, Colorado. William Z. Foster, head of the C.P., was called to Denver to offset the damage done to the Communist cause by Rev. Harvey H. Springer, Fundamentalist Protestant preacher, who is a courageous enemy of Communism in the West.

More than three hundred of these preachers have been forced off the radio by atheist influence. THINK WEEKLY strongly commends these Fundamentalist preachers who are out in the open fighting Communism. For their efforts they are smeared as "anti-Semitic", a term currently being applied to all real Americans who oppose atheistic Communism.

"The Church is the weapon of the ruling class and must be destroyed. Already our heroic comrades in the Red Army (having destroyed the church at home) are crushing once and for all this deadly enemy in Poland, Lithuania, Estonia, Rumania, Hungary and Bulgaria. We workers understand that the clerical Fascists in Spain, Yugoslavia and Germany laid the ground work for the rise of Hitler — and only through the destruction of these clerical Fascists can we save the world from another Hitler.

Already we see the earmark of these Hitlers in our own community, when men like Springer can carry on their rabble rousing protected by the police storm troopers. Answer the challenge of the hour! Hear William Z. Foster, national chairman Communist party, U.S.A., on 'What America Faces'. Admission 35 cents."

POLITICAL ACTION IS CLICKING

Henry J. Taylor states that he talked with Sidney Hillman's press agent at the close of the Democratic Convention in Chicago and received this statement:

"Political action is clicking because the POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE boys have the know-how. After the bloody battles fought for industrial unionization, political organization is a picnic; in the political field, WHO IS TO STOP US?"

By JOSEF STALIN

"The working classes of all countries must be organized. Thus, will we be assured of World support when the time comes for us to defend our fatherland against external enemies.

"Particularly must the workers of bourgeoisie countries be strengthened. They must be organized so that the Soviet Union will be assured of political assistance in the event of an armed attack". (MKR, p. 140).

"We know very well that Capitalism cannot be abolished without the use of force". From the Manifesto of the Communist Party of America.

AMERICA INVITES CALAMITY

NO FREE ELECTIONS UNDER RED RULE

The following news item on the Bulgarian elections will give you an idea of how so-called "free elections" were conducted in Poland, in Hungary, and in all other countries under Communist rule and influence.

This is the type of "free election" we will have one day in Chicago, Boston, New York, Dallas — if the American people do not rise up and drive from our shores all believers and supporters of this evil atheistic ideology.

Stalin, on the occasion of his sixtieth birthday, said he would not celebrate another birthday until he had succeeded in instigating world revolution. Is not that declaration plain enough? Is not the United States a part of the world?

Sofia, Bulgaria, Oct. 26 (U.P.) — Communist chief, George Dimitrov, leader of the five-party Fatherland Front, warned today that any opposition to the government coalition in tomorrow's election will be traitorous.

"It is worth remembering the fate of Draja Mihailovitch," Dimitrov said. Mihailovitch, former Yugoslav Partisan leader, died before a firing squad after his conviction as a "traitor, criminal and collaborator."

In a 30-minute election-eve speech before 200,000, Dimitrov indirectly attacked the United States and Great Britain for "encouraging the remains of Fascism" in the Balkans.

'Slit His Golden Throat'

By a writer of the Daily Worker.

Langston Hughes, Communist Negro poet, contributed the following verse in a poem titled "Revolution."

"Come here
Great Mob that knows no fear,
And tear him (the Capitalist) from limb
to limb,
Slit his golden throat
Ear to ear,
And end his time forever
Now — This Year —
Great Mob that knows no fear."

BY WILLIAM Z. FOSTER, PRESIDENT OF COMMUNIST PARTY OF AMERICA

"The Communist is unscrupulous in his choice of weapons. He allows no consideration, legality, religion, patriotism, honor, duty, etc., to stand in the way of his adoption of effective tactics".

Excerpts from Radio Broadcast by Merlin K. Hart, President of National Economic Council, Inc., over the Mutual Broadcasting System, October 22, 1946 at 10:15 P.M.

Yes, America is inviting calamity — By supinely submitting to wrong and injustice. Let us take Grover Cleveland's warning to our hearts. America is submitting to wrong and injustice because her people are confused. All too few realize what is taking place.

But those who listen to the Upton Close Broadcasts — are surely aware that our beloved country is in real danger of passing under complete control of Soviet Russia.

Though the Soviet was set up in 1917, the United States did not recognize it as a government until 1933, and that recognition was based upon the express promise of Soviet Russia that it would CEASE its Communist propaganda in the United States.

But Russia never even pretended to keep this promise. In fact, so openly was the promise violated that in 1935 our State Department made open protest to Moscow. That protest was the last — and Russia did nothing about it. Our government never mentioned it again, and Soviet spies in the United States redoubled their efforts.

Ever since then, Stalin's Soviet Government has gone right ahead with its plan to subjugate the United States. And now, they even dare tell us over the Moscow Radio how we should vote!

For many years little attention was paid to those who, like ourselves, warned America of the Communist danger. Though plenty of evidence was available to prove Russia's intent, yet it attracted the serious attention of relatively few Americans.

Clare Booth Luce, just back from Europe, in a radio address on May 29 of last year said that every government in Central Europe was controlled directly or indirectly by Moscow-minded rulers: That this had been accomplished in large part by the liquidation of all Anti-Communists, and by the putting of guns, money and food into the hands of discontented minority groups which would agree to adopt a Soviet program.

Kravchenko, a former high Soviet official who walked out of the Soviet purchasing commission in Washington, has helped in the awakening. He felt he owed it to the world to disclose the Soviet plan of Aggression. This he did in early 1946 in his book entitled I CHOSE FREEDOM.

Bit of This & That

By David Goldstein, LL.D.

REPORTS COMING indirectly from the Kremlin show that Stalin was once more enchanted by the voice and pen of Henry A.

Wallace, whose "forays in the field of foreign policy" caused America to call him "irresponsible, to use the mildest term." This irresponsibility on the part of Mr. Wallace was noted long before he objected to the "get tough with Russia" policy of our Secretary of State. His tendency to "rush in where angels fear to tread" got him in wrong in a discussion of the writings of Marx, as well as our American atomic bomb policy. It was on the occasion, at the N. Y. Times Book Fair, when he credited "Das Kapital", a book he had "only read about", with having inspired world Communism and Fascism. He proved himself to be as far from understanding the influence of Marx's economic classic as he was from properly evaluating Bernard M. Baruch's report on international control of atomic energy. This irresponsible action on the part of our former Secretary of Commerce seems worthwhile relating to readers of this column now that he is to edit the Marxian New Republic. But first let us examine the book.

DAS KAPITAL is a serious attempt on the part of Marx to present the laws that underlie the production and exchange of commodities in a capitalistic society. It is an analysis of the source of economic value. Therein Marx outlined in minute detail, with algebraic formulae, the process that causes commodities to become the "universal equivalent," money; the conversion of money into "constant capital" (machinery, materials, etc.), and "variable capital" (labor power); and the creation as well as appropriation of "surplus value". Das Kapital is a cataclysmic theory that purports to prove scientifically, the inevitability of economic class struggles which he claims are certain to climax in the "expropriation of the expropriators," as Darwin's theory of "natural selection" demonstrates that the troglodyte after ages of struggle, was transformed into man.

THE BOOK is an endeavor to prove that collective ownership of the means of production and exchange through confiscation, would inevitably come in a highly industrialized and mechanized country. But "Socialism realized," as Stalin designated the U.S.S.R., came in an agricultural country in which over 80 per cent of the people were peasants. This cock-sure "scientific" prediction of Karl Marx, the climax of the "surplus value" theory in Das Kapital, went the Darwinian inanity, "natural selection," into the museum of intellectual antiquities. That is why Ernest Untermann, who translated the American edition of Das Kapital from the German into English, said that Marxism is no longer valid, that "not only the Marxian theory of value and surplus value, but the whole Marxian theory of the effect of Capitalist development in different social classes and their consciousness which has been outmoded by economic progress in the United States.

WALLACE: After expressing the well established claim that the formation of Das Kapital in the mind of Marx was due to "the forces which Darwin, Adam Smith and John Stuart Mill let loose in the biological and economic world, combined with those originated by Hegel in the philosophical world." Mr. Wallace told the N. Y. Times Book Fair audience that "whether we like it or not, everyone in the world today is different because of Das Kapital. Without Das Kapital (said he) there would have been neither the Communist nor the Fascist experiments. All of us today are under the shadow of Das Kapital more than any other book of the nineteenth century."

DAS KAPITAL never inspired any revolutionary experiment. It is a book that only one Socialist or Communist out of a hundred understands. During years of association with Socialists, and the conduct of a Karl Marx Class in association with the late Mrs. Martha Moore Avery, its Director, this columnist never met anyone who became a Socialist through the study of Das Kapital. The "book of the nineteenth century all of us are under the shadow of," the book "to which Communism and Fascism can be traced," is not Das Kapital, as Mr. Wallace claimed, rather is it the "Communist Manifesto," the credo of Communism, written by Marx in collaboration with Frederich Engels. It was the Communist Manifesto that brought "the shadow", like a pall, over the world. It was called the "Communist" instead of the Socialist "Manifest," in order to distinguish "scientific Socialism" (which is unscientific) from the sentimental Socialism of Fourier, Owen and others. It was the Communist Manifesto that taught the Lenin - Trotsky - Stalin - Molotov enemy of Christian society how to play the now-you-see-it-and-now-you-don't tactical game of the Marxists that leads the uninformed to revolution; the tactics that guided Stalin when he started World War II in union with Hitler, and then zigzagged to the other side against his political bed-fellow, after they shared the loot (Poland). It was the Communist Manifesto from which the Socialists got their fiery, attractive, stirring slogan, "Workingmen of the world unite; you have nothing to lose but your chains, and a world to win". Evidently those who use the slogan today must think it is "nothing to lose" religious, political, educational and industrial liberties, of which over 300 million persons are deprived in the Land-of-Socialism-Applied and its puppet states.

LET US HOPE, for the sake of right reason and true history, that the new editor of the "New Republic" will read the books he writes about, and thus avoid being considered irresponsible in the future.

AMERICA IS INVITING CALAMITY

States has published a pamphlet called Communist Infiltration in the United States.

And the legislative reference section of the Library of Congress has put out a 140-page pamphlet entitled Communism in Action.

In all sections of the country people are getting to know better what this Communist menace means. And at the same time the efforts to "smear" and discredit all exposures of the truth about Russia have been redoubled. So we are still far from a complete awakening. Soviet propaganda has penetrated so deep in America that, unless a complete awakening soon takes place, Russia can still take us over.

If any of you, fellow citizens, doubt the truth of what I say, write me for a list of the publications I have just mentioned.

Now any American would recognize a long-haired Bolshevik with a hammer and sickle on his hat and a smoking gun in his hand. But most Americans do not recognize the slyer, slicker, more indirect signs of Communism. They do not recognize bears in sheep's clothing.

Consider an example: Early in the war Congress adopted price control, while assuring the American people it would be abandoned after the war. You know what has followed -- How American Communists and Collectivists, and other Leftists, have fought to keep the OPA controls. Last August the chains were re-forged and the shackles re-applied. For price control, rigid and permanent, is an essential part of the Communist program, which constantly seeks more and more control over the individual.

The freedom-loving American people refused to be bound by this Communistic scheme of price control, which was utterly needless, and worse than useless in peacetime. Many did not understand what influence was behind it, even when they rose in revolt. But the revolt drove the President to abandon it.

Communists are clever. They know that even now a frontal attack by Communists would make no headway in America. So they sugar-coat their doctrines. They don't leave their propagandizing to rough fellows. They seek out respectable groups for fellow-travellers -- often groups of high standing in their intentions and motives -- and get them to do their work.

At the instance of this alien-minded gentry, Leftist groups have been formed within many religious organizations, and one such religious organization has a so-called "Church League for Industrial Democracy," whose cardinal principle is "Production for Use and Not for Profit." These words read well -- they seem filled with sweetness and light. But they state a cardinal principle of the Communist Party -- namely, the elimination of property and profit.

Last week 122 religious leaders, on the liberal or Leftist side, announced an eight-point program. This, too, reads well. But its eight points add up to an endorsement of some of the most important principles of Communism. Those principles, enacted into law, would end the American republic. We would have in its place a country ready and ripe to be forced into the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

So you see that we in America need to wake up further. On every side we have writers, commentators, preachers, and playwrights who in more or less veiled fashion are plugging for principles that would mean our enslavement.

Listen, my friends, the founding fathers of this country set up the first system of free government in all history. That government released energies -- mental, moral and spiritual -- which in 150 years have transformed our lives. Standards of life and living theretofore undreamed of were attained. Those energies brought benefits to the whole world. During this period every American knew that his success in life depended upon his own efforts.

So we have in this country the greatest aggregate of individual imagination, ambition and accomplishment the world has ever seen.

And as you well know, this American energy, born of freedom, was able during the past five years to equip both itself and its allies with most of the equipment needed to fight the war.

Don't you see that if the crafty Communists can destroy all chance for ambition in America -- can stifle all our private enterprise -- our country will so sink in a tangle of Leftist red tape that it will be easy prey for military conquest?

Look around you today -- our government, in which Communists or Communistic sympathizers have found public office, is bogged down. Taxation is draining our strength. Private enterprise, both small and great, is handicapped by the burdens imposed by almost countless government bureaus. We see waste all around us. Communistic influences have imposed upon us tyrannical labor laws completely destroying the independence of the individual worker. That is why we have strikes on every hand.

Soviet fellow-travellers and sympathizers are quick to smear any person who raises his voice for the America of our Fathers. Our system of education is permeated with attacks against our American past and against those who believe that since that past was great, we should adhere to the principles upon which it was built. The great American Constitution is rarely ever mentioned. We are even leaving God out of our lives, as completely as he was left out of the United Nations Conference in San Francisco in 1945.

So here we stand today. Unless the people rise promptly and demand that the America that was theirs be given back to them, in spite of the partial awakening that has taken place, the freedom of this country may be lost.

But I do not believe it is going to be lost. Nothing can stop a trend. There is a great and growing trend today against the alien influence. There is growing resentment against those who decry America.

All of you who are listening are busy people. Yet however busy you are, you have no problem so great as the need for you to decide whether you will submit to Communism and slavery.

Whether we continue to be dragged down into Communism, or escape it, will depend upon you -- you individual citizens. For any President, any Congress, will do what an overwhelming number of citizens demands.

Therefore I leave this problem to you. You millions of loyal Americans control your own destiny. You have only to inform yourselves.

This great country is slow to wrath. But today its wrath is rising. It is growing sick of Leftist smears of men and women who are smeared because they prefer their own America before all else.

With your help, Communism and all its works can presently be swept from the land.

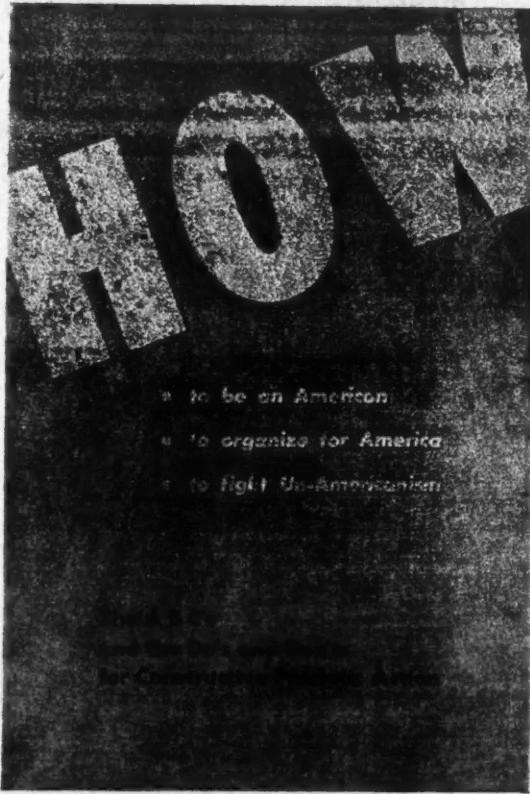

And we will return to the faith of our fathers.

Get Wise! Organize!

WELL? Are you an American? What does your conscience tell you?

If you are -- then lets get going -- there is a job to do -- a job for Americans -- to organize for America.

The pamphlet HOW by Joseph P. Kamp contains valuable information for all Americans who wish to become active against COMMUNISM.

LENIN SAYS --

"There are just two moves they can make -- war against Russia, which will mean revolution at home -- Peace with Russia, which will mean the spread of Soviet principles throughout the World." (Lenin in "Liberator, Feb. 1920".)

"It may be stated that Stalin is one of those who think that an economic crisis after this war is inevitable in the United States -- Conditions are more ripe for revolution in the United States than they were in old Russia. The American Revolution, when the workers have finally seized power, will develop even more swiftly in all its phases than has the Russian revolution. The American soviet government will be organized along the broad lines of the Russian soviets." (William Z. Foster, national chairman of the Communist Party of the United States, writing in the Daily Worker, July 1945, and in his book "Toward A Soviet America".)

"Our morality is entirely subordinated to the interests of the class struggle of the proletariat. We do not believe in eternal morality, and we expose all the fables about morality." (From a pamphlet entitled "Lenin Speaks to Youth", published by the Communist Party of the United States.)

RED FASCISM WILL KILL OFF BANKERS AND BUSINESSMEN FIRST

Most people remember the 1929 crash, when several thousand bankers and business men shot themselves because of financial difficulties. This is nothing compared with what will happen within a week after Communism takes full charge of our government.

We advise busy bankers and business men to use their brains now to save your country and not have them shoot it out later.

STRIKES

"Mass action (under Communist leadership) includes: a combination of strikes and demonstrations; a combination of strikes and armed demonstrations, and, finally, the general strike conjointly with armed insurrection against the state power of the bourgeoisie".

From the "Program of the Communist International," an official Red document published with imprint of the Communist party of the U.S.A.

RED FRONTS THAT ARE BACKING THE FUTURE COMMISSARS IN U.S.

There are approximately 500 Red fronts in the United States, of which we list a few each week. Here is a list of the most prominent ones.

A candidate who is supported by Red members of any of these Fronts should be smoked out. If he is accepting support from both you and the Reds, he will have to double-cross one of you later. Demand of this candidate that he make a public statement condemning Communism and the Communists who support him.

SUPPORT BY AMERICANS IS NEEDED TO WIN THE BATTLE FOR AMERICAN CIVILIZATION

Although the battles have been tough and the worries many, THINK WEEKLY is approaching its twenty-fifth week of publication. The work has been on the shoulders of a few and the strain has been unbearable at times; however, here we are still not to the top, and still fighting for what the CONSTITUTION of the United States says is right.

What has kept the courage to a high degree in the hearts of the small group of THINK WEEKLY workers has been the increasing demand for our paper all over the nation and the many encouraging letters we receive each day. If it had not been for these faithful readers and the donations they have sent us to carry on the fight, the history of THINK WEEKLY would have been very brief. It is a shame that so few Americans respond to the call for help from those who are on the front lines. Although we are very grateful to those who are rallying behind us and doing their little part, there are not enough such supporters to save America.

Some Americans do not respond to our call because bitter past experiences have told them that nobody would start a paper like THINK WEEKLY without some capitalistic motive behind it. Others falsely believe that some "big angle", such as a political party or the Hearst papers, are backing us. Unfortunately we have not had the blessing of such support in this fight. We would welcome it. In time, the men with money will realize that to save, not only their investments in America, but their lives as well, they will have to back up this fight. Whether we will be in existence when the realization comes that principles and lives are to be sacrificed with money, is a question that will only be answered with time.

The other day one of the workers was talking to a respectable citizen and after the listener had learned a few facts, he said, "What you say is true, but I don't like to think of things like that." So, while millions of good Americans are playing ostrich with their minds buried in sand, America is slowly and gradually slipping into the chaotic stage of Socialism. Does the reader think that the men behind these typewriters and over these desks like to face such morbid and certain facts? Absolutely not ... This paper is set up and operated at night because we have to make a living with other jobs. Our Sundays and holidays are spent on the same monotonous grind so it will be a success. The writer knows what regimentation means to the lives of men because he spent almost four years as a regimented Marine.

It is too bad that each and every American cannot experience such a life of regimentation. If they had the least idea of it, they would support every means to rid the world and particularly America of these atheistic renegades who are destroying our country.

THINK, AMERICANS !! And after a little thought, let us hear your voices and see your money. Anyone who thinks this paper is becoming rich has a standing invitation to investigate us. No patriotic movement that has ever taken place in America has ever produced wealth.

CANDIDATES ARE EITHER 'FOR' OR 'AGAINST' COMMUNISM

Communists are trained and clever, their stooge candidates shifty and polite, with their eyes on the ballot box. It is difficult for you to be sure if they will later take orders from Stalin's agents.

If a candidate does not come out strong and take a stand on one side or the other, he should be the loser. Every man knows how he stands on Communism. It is time for him to decide if he is for America or for Communism ... he cannot be for both.

If the candidate is not out in the open fighting Communism, he is strictly a politician and is not to be trusted. If you are in doubt, vote against him. He should not allow you to be in doubt.

BENJAMIN STOLBERG

in his "Story of the C.I.O." wrote that: "in the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers Union they term all opposition disruptive, undemocratic, 'Trotskyite,' silencing all criticism through frame-ups, steam-roller methods, character assassination, and plain hooliganism in meetings" (p.149).
